

to the default, intimating the price fixed by the District Forest Officer for the unsold wood and the amount still due from him will be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

6. The deposits tendered by unsuccessful bidders shall be returned immediately after the sales are concluded, those of successful bidders being lodged in the Savings Bank as security deposit.

7. The full value of all timber purchased shall be paid for within 30 days after the date of sale or within 15 days after the date of the notice of confirmation of the sale whichever is later. In case of purchases of above Rs. 1,000 in value, the purchaser shall be permitted to pay up the balance in instalments of not less than Rs. 1,000 provided the full value is paid not later than 15th May 1931. The money shall be paid into such treasury as the District Forest Officer may direct within the time specified.

8. If the amount is not fully paid by the purchaser before the dates fixed above, the initial deposit as well as the other moneys already paid in, shall be forfeited to Government and all or any portion of the timber not fully paid for shall be resold at the risk of the purchaser in the manner prescribed for default of payment of one-tenth value in clause 5 supra.

9. No timber lot shall be permitted to be removed by the purchaser unless it has been paid for in full, calculated at the rates at which the timber is knocked down to him at the time of sale excluding the 10 per cent deposit paid for the lot at the time of the sale; and no timber shall be removed from the depot unless a permit is obtained from the Forest Officer, in charge of the depot. The earnest money will not be adjusted towards the value of timber until 90 per cent of purchase money over and above the security deposit has been paid.

10. Timber purchased should be removed as early as possible, and in no case should it be allowed to remain longer than 90 days after the dates fixed in clause 7 supra. Timber not removed after purchase, will remain in the Depot at the risk of the purchaser from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

11. If the timber is not removed within the time allowed, the same may, after ten days' notice to the purchaser, be sold in public auction and the proceeds will be given to the purchaser after defraying all the expenses in connection with the resale.

12. The deposit of Rs. 200 will remain as security for the due fulfilment of all and every one of the terms of sale, on the breach of any of which by the purchaser, the District Forest Officer shall be entitled to forfeit the deposit in whole or in part and in the event of such forfeiture, the sum so forfeited shall be immediately made good by the purchaser so long as the transaction is not finally closed. The security deposit or the balance thereof, if any, shall be returned to the purchaser after the full value of timber purchased has been paid for and the timber fully removed.

District Forest Officer.

HASSAN DISTRICT.

Abstract Notification dated 6th October 1930.

The attention of the public is invited to the detailed notifications of date noted below published on pages 1259 to 1261, Part VI of the Mysore Gazette, dated 16th October 1930.

- (1) Sale of casuarina and eucalyptus trees in the Forests of Hassan Range.
- (2) Sale of teak poles in Hassan Range.

Notification dated 25th October 1930.

It is hereby notified for general information that the right of collecting fish in the Kemphole river of Kemphole State Forest in the Manjarabad Range, during the years 1930-31 and 1931-32, will be sold by public auction on 26th November 1930, at Saklespur between 3 and 5 P.M. by the Forest Range Office, subject to the following conditions.

The sale will commence at 3 P.M., on the date of sale and if it is not concluded on the same day, it will be put up on the next day also.

Conditions.

1. No person will be allowed to bid unless he deposits with the sale conducting officer a sum of Rs. 10 only as earnest money, which in the case of all unsuccessful bidders will be duly returned immediately after the close of the sale.

2. The successful bidder shall immediately after the close of the sale, pay one-fourth of the sale amount including the deposit already paid together with local and education cesses at one anna and six pies in the rupee respectively on the entire sale amount. In default, the deposit will be forfeited and the right resold at the risk of the original bidder, who will be liable to make good any loss that may result to Government, but shall have no claim to any surplus accruing therefrom. Such loss shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue under section 79 of the Forest Regulation.

3. The balance of the three-fourths sale amount shall be remitted to the nearest Government Treasury within a week from the date of intimation of the confirmation of the sale (either by the District Forest Officer or the Conservator of Forests, Shimoga, as the case may be) and shall also deposit a sum of Rs. 50 or 25 per cent of the sale amount, whichever is less, as security towards the due fulfilment of his contract, and execute an agreement on a stamped paper of proper value accepting the above terms and the conditions specified below, failing which the amount already paid will be forfeited to Government and the right resold at his risk as noted in clause 2 supra.

The following are the further conditions to which the contractor should bind himself:—

- (a) That no operation shall take place in the river either before sun-rise or after sunset, and that he shall abide by the rules of the department as regards the kindling of fire and shall hold himself responsible for any offence committed by himself, agents or his servants.
- (b) That he shall not operate upon during the spawning season, i.e., from 1st March to 31st August in each year.
- (c) That he shall not poison or dynamite water or throw other explosives or deleterious substance in water and shall not set up fixed engines.
- (d) That he shall not use nets having a mesh below 2", while catching fish.
- (e) That he shall have no right whatsoever over the 'bab' after 30th June 1931.
- (f) That for the breach of any of the conditions of the contract, the lease will be cancelled and all the moneys paid by him forfeited to Government and the right resold at his risk as in clause 2 supra.

If the sale is not completed on the same day it will be continued on the next day also.

Conditions.

1. Each bidder shall place a deposit of Rs. 200 with the officer conducting the sale, but defaulters to the department will not be allowed to bid at the sales.

In the case of purchases of timber not exceeding Rs. 200 in value this deposit will not be insisted upon provided that the full purchase money is paid in cash on the spot.

2. Any person bidding at the sale, may be required by the officer conducting the sale to state whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an agent, and in the latter case, to produce a written authority duly signed by the principal.

3. The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale, can reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the intending purchasers.

4. Immediately after the sale is closed down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided from the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such lot and of having accepted the terms of the sale as herein specified. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the Conservator of Forests, if the amount exceeds Rs. 1,000.

5. After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 10 per cent of the amount in cash to the officer conducting the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt vouching for the payment of the one-tenth value as well as the initial deposit of Rs. 200. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the initial deposit of Rs. 200 shall at once be forfeited to Government and the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the timber purchased by such defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate in any profit from such resale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of loss from
